

I would appreciate that the no-call list bill remain in effect as it currently is. Our lives have improved and have been much less cluttered by the reduction in unwanted phone calls to our home, at inconvenient hours. The peace that has been achieved is wonderful.

I do not want telemarketers, banks or ANYONE to be able to randomly call our home with bothersome, unwanted information and calls.

Thank you